HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Nov. 18. Debate on the bill fixing the SALARIES of certain Officers therein mentioned;

CONTINUED.

Mr. Sandford said the information imparted by the gentleman from Virginia had enabled him to give a correct vote on this subject; before he did which he should trouble the House with a few observations. His ill state of health had not permitted him to attend to the progress of the bill before the committee, and when he before rose he was new to the subject. But from the remarks which had dropped from different gentlemen in the course of this debate he had found no reasons that satisfied his mind of the propriety of a reduction of the salaries of the officers contemplated in this bill. He, on the contrary, believed those salaries were at present full low enough. It was a maxim with him, unless good reasons were offered for the reduction of salaries, to be in favor of continuing them; and no such reasons had he heard. It had been stated by a gentleman from Pennsylvania, (Mr. Clay) that the wages of a member of that House amounted only to about the rate of 800 dollars a year: that statement was incorrect; calculating for the year at the rate per diem they would amount to about 2,100 dollars a year, and in the case of members, living remote from the seat of government, to about 2,500 dollars. He would ask the House to recollect the difference between his services, and those of a head of a department; and yet he received more than half of the compensation made to the highest officers under the government, excepting the President and Vice-President. Mr. S. said he was clearly of opinion, for these and other reasons, that the salaries should continue to stand as they then did.

Mr. Skinnerrose, and made some preliminary remarks not distinctly heard. He then said, his opinion was that this place was more expensive than any within the United States. Comparing the expences here with those in the cast wing of the continent, they bore no proportion. Gentlemen say these are war salaries; and is there not now a state of war in Europe? Would it then be wise, when these salaries were formed under circumstances arising out of war, to reduce them at the commencement of another war before its effects are known? He drew, in his mind, a distinction between increasing salaries, and continuing them after such increase. At the time these salaries were increased, it had been stated as a reason for the increase that we were about removing the seat of government to this place; but he believed it had been opposed on this ground, that it would be best to wait until the government was removed, when, being here, the necessary expences could be better ascertained.

Much has been said of economy. Mr. Skinner said he had never been for fixing the compensation of officers so low as not to admi It e highest talents. True econony, in his opinion, consisted in saving unnecessary expences; and this would be ef- Further to protect the Seamen of the United fected by filling the first offices of the government with the best men in the union. Let it be recollected too that these officers have been arraigned before the public until the weapons of slander had broken harmless at their feet. Was this a time to reduce thei compensations? Such a measure would surely be most indiscreet, as it might produce an impression of demerit on their part. It would also be an act of ingratitude to the people. Mr. Skinner stat- States, any seamen, mariner, or other pered his belief, that, so far as related to his son, fuet being a civil or military officer, constituents, the present salaries were or soldier of the said foreign nation, or of deemed no greater than the officers merit- any other sovereignty with which the said ed, and not more than sufficient to support nation shall be at war,) to prohibit by prothem. _Aves 78. On a motion of Mr. J. Randolph the blank respecting the salary of the Secretary of the Treasury was filled with 5,000 dollars ....

Mr. J. Randolph then moved to fill the blank respecting the salary of the Secretary of War with 4,500 dollars, which was carried-Aves 75-as was a similar motion respecting the Secretary of the Navy with the same sum.

On a motion to fill the blank respecting the Attorney General with 3,000 dollars, Mr. J. Clay asked for information; the reasons in favor of the salaries allowed to the other officers, did not, in his opinion, hold good in this case. He moved to fill the blank with 2,000 dollars.

Sr. JOHN's, (Ant.) Dec. 22. The I llowing is a translation of a Proclamation published at Guadslones 10 days ago.

In the name of the French Republic. PROCLAMATION.

Augustus Ernout, General of Division, Captain General of Guaral upe and its dependencies. Citizen Inhabitants,

The English for some time past lave announced great preparations against the French colonies -their emmissaries exagerate the strength of the forces which they say compose this acmament; their partizans endeavour by subtile means, to give an air of touth to these hostile rumours, and endeavour to matel a sentiment of terror, into the minds of the peaceable inhabitants of this government, in order to gain time to rally toge. ther some obscure individuals, basely sold to the interest of England.

Although judging in a military and political point of view of the present situation of the two nations, we ought to despise the menaces of an enemy who has much greater reason to dread an invasion than we have, still prudence requires us to adopt such measures as may dissipate these reports, compose the minds of our peaceable inhabitants and preserve that tranquility to which this colony has at length been restored.

The instant I learnt the poture of the negociations between the two powers, I availed myself of the different resources of nature and art for the defence of this country-I immediately issped the necessary orders to the different chiefs of the army. The commandants of the militia. those of the line and the directors of the artillery received my particular instructions - Nothing remains for me now to do citize sout to point out to you the line of conduct which it will be proper for you to follow with me, as chief of the co. lony, and that which I shall pursue towards your and in order that no person may plead ignorance, I announce it to you in the most solemn manner,

1st. As soon as it shall be certainly known toat an invasion is intended on the part of the enemy, every inhabitant summoned by his commander, shall immediately repair to the post as

2d. Every owner of slaves shall carry with him four domestics of colour selected from those in whom he places the most confidence. - These men upon arriving at the post assigned to their master shall receive arms.

34. Every inhabitant able to carry arms, who shall refuse to march upon receiving orders to de so from the chief of his b 1 slion, shall be deemed as a traitor to his country, arrested as such, and delivered over to a council of war, to he trick within 24 hours

4th. Every person who with seditious designs shall endeavour to lessen the confidence due ta government, or shall attempt to disseminate alarm by obscure and perfiduous means, amongst the peaceable inhabit ints, shall in like manner be arrested and delivered over to a council of war. -And whoever knows of the designs and measurce of the enemy and conceals them from the go. veriment shall be considered as an accomplicaand adherent.

Inhabitants of Guadaloupe!

A glorious career opens itself before you. Bad nish from your minds the false and dishonourable idea, that the enemy of the French name can protect your property. The secret of the cabinet of ruin of our colonies, the destruction of our commerce, and the abolition of that benign government which protects you. Let your conduct imitate that of the mother country. The French know the perfidity and injustice of the English government, and rally round the First Consul to offer him their hearts and their devotion : this noble enthusiasin has been spontaneous and general. The great Buonaparte expects the same homage from the colonies. He will judge of your exertions, and hold you responsible for your conduel : His wise and powerful government can ele ther punish or reward, Have you not already resisted the attack of the

The Managers.

Our readers are presented with a very interesting article of foreign news under the Petersburg head below. It appears to be the policy of our present administation, if not to go to war with Great Britain, at least to come very near it, and to blow up the embers of resentment, which some other admistation after them will have to extinguish by great consessions, or suffer their country and its commerce to be inveloped in the flames of war. Such it was long since predicted would be the case, whenever the renewal of the British treaty should be entered into between Mr. Jef. ferson and that country; and this, like many other predictions of the federalists concerning this man, is but too likely to be fulfilled.

he paper from which the above mentioned foreign nervs is taken, says " A member of the legislature has received a letter from colonel Mercer, who accompanied colonel Monroe to Europe, stating that there was every prospect of an immediate peace between France and Great Britain; that there would be a change of ministry in England-Sheridan and Fox coming in—and that Bonaparte had determined to settle down the government of France upon true republican princi-

PETERSBURG, January 13.

IMPORTANT.

The Editors of the Intelligencer have been politely handed a London paper of November 12th, (The Morning Posi) received by the ship Protectress, arrived at Gity Point, containing the following important article, in relation to the twelfth article of the treaty between this country and Great Britain, which had expired, agreeably to the provisioner of the treaty. We hasten to lay it before our readers, not doubting it will receive the serious attention of every friend to the commercial interests of the country.

London November 12. COMMERCE WITH AMERICA.

While the attention and activity of goernment appear to be wholly engroced by hvasive preparations of the enemy, and by e preparatory measures on our own part meet and frustrate them; and while the houghts and anxiety of the nation at large eem exclusively to be intent on this more han gigantic and impending peril, other opics of great commercial interest, and igh political consequence, must naturally ntermix and blend themselves with these nore ponderous considerations, though, or the moment, they may be overlooked y the public, or merge altogether in the ea of difficulties, by which we are threatned more immediately to be overwhelm-The renewal of hostilities between rance and Great Britain has naturally farower to avail themselves of the difficul

Nations, like individuals, will eagerly seize on every favorable occasion to promote their respective interests, and to remove every obstacle and embarrassment by which they may in more inauspicious times have been obstructed and depressed. Thus, since the breaking out of a French war blow at the general commercial interests of this with France, several treaties or renewals country, and which would prove fatal to the comof treaties have been demanded, entered mercial existence of many respectable individuals. into, and negociated between Great Bri- It is well known that the trade at America, in tain and the northern powers, principally re- West Andra and East India armeies, with the corlating to the privileges of neutrals, the right tment of Europe, most especially with France of search, and the contraband of war - has of late considerably encreased; and in pro-Whatever difficulties might have arisen portion to is growing prospertly, will they nafrom these discussions, we have bad rea- turally be anxious to enige to, or at least to son to hope, not only that they were remo- preserve it undeninished and unusurained. ved, but that new advantages and facilities! Such a difficition on their part, their abvious have been obtained in our favor. Of this intered a half prompt them to ent realn ; it is the late treaty with Sweden is a satisfactory for is to examine how far it may be reconcitable instance. But as we into dourselves thereby to be more disentangled from our this point with every reflible argency; nor are perplexities, we seemed little to expect that his exercions and different folely to be relied difficulties and disagreements would have on; but another regoriator, we believe, a Mr. arisen up in a quarter from whence we were Lane, is expected from to arrive from America, more inclined to flatter ourselves with in order to give additional force and activity to friendship and fevor than to dread enmity the pending negociation. Ministers will no and obstruction. Little did we seem to doubt, fell the importance of communing to main expect (by WE, we mean the Public,) that can a friendly underflanding with the United at the present moment, a moment so big States; but as their coolnels and moderation will with other dangers, from a far other and no doubt, admonth them against any bash or more formidable foe, the attention and exertions of government should be distracted by an unseasonable or unreasonable claims on the part of America. Yet little as the public at large seem now to be aware of it; perhaps upon no topic is the mind of government more detained and urged at the present moment than on the revision, principally of the twelfth article of the treaty of The subject of celiberation was supposed to be Amity, Commerce, &c. &c. between his the die filons cerding between this country and Majesty and the United States of America, relative to the construction of the 12th ca, concluded in 1794, and conditionally Arricle of the treaty of Commerce concluded be ratified in 1795. The general stipulations ween his Mejesty and the United States in 1794. of that treaty are too numerous and dif. By this arth is the Americans are restricted from fused now to admit of a detailed examination; but the spirit and tendency of the whole treaty almost wholly rested, more especially as to its future consequences, upon the twelfth article of which, for the convenience and satisfaction of our readers we now insert the following copy: [Here follows the twelfth article of Mr.

which commerce is to be carried on between the United States and the British West India Islands.

The thirteenth article contains nearly the same stipulation respecting the trade of America in the sea ports and harbours of the British territories in the East Indies. It has already been observed, that the 12th article formed the main hinge upon which was to turn the future force and execution of this treaty, which fully appears

Art. 28 .- " It is agreed that the first ten articles of this treaty shall be permanent, and that the subsequent articles, except the twelfth, shall be limited in their duration to twelve years, to be computed from the day on which the ratifications of this treaty shall be exchanged, but fully subject to this condition-that whereas the said twelfth article will expire, by the limitation therein contained, at the end of two years from the signing of the preliminary, or other articles of peace, which shall terminate the present war in which his majesty is engaged, it is agreed, that proper measures shall, by concert, be taken for bringing the subject of that article into amicable treaty and discussion, so early before the expiration of the said term, as that new arrangements on that head may at that time be perfected, and ready to take place; but if it should unfortunately happen, that his majesty and the United States, should not be able to agree on such new arrangements, in that case, all the articles of this treaty, except the first ten, shall then cease and expire together."

This is the unfortunate issue which the above article seemed to have in perespective, and which constitutes the principal ground of the discussion in which we understand that aninisters are now deeply engaged. Under any other circumstances the points in dispute might be easily adjusted; but when so many other more momentous concerns are at stake, and when we know that the craft, malice, and intrigue of our great enemy will continually and anxiously blow their pestilential breath on every little sore that may break ou in the body of any other state, till they feste and influme it into accrimonious virole ce, w may easily imagine how much they endeavor to irritate the temper of the United States; of themselves, perhaps, too sanguinely disposed to derive or extort advantages from the present per plexities and perilous posture of British affairs The renewal of this treaty, we are credibly in. formed, has for some time back formed a principal object of the discussions of the consular ca binet, and is now under the serious consideration of the government of this country. The Ame shed the rivals and the enemies of either rican government is said to held, the most lofty

They now strongly remonstrate against any restriction or Imitation whatever, and it is said they hold very I by language respecting their pretentions, This is ject, we understand, occupies at present much of the attention and anxiety of Ministers. Up n a question of such delicacy and importance, we forbear at present to make any comment. It Jay's treaty, prescribing the mode in is one, however, which involves, not only the existence of many respectable individuals, but even the general commercial interest of this country."

The following is from the London Evening Post of the 12th November:

" Some difficulties of a commercial nature, relative to the trade of the West Lidia Islands, are now under the consideration of Ministers; but we have little doubt that every thing will be eas ly adjusted to the satisfaction of both nations; we, however, think, that if America be very impatient and urgent at the present, it is both inde. corous and union; as a nation engaged in de. fending its existence, as we are, ought not to be pressed by a friendly power on any subject that is of a nature to admit of delay, which must be the case with every commercial regulation."

Extract of a letter from Gibrahar, dated the 22d Noember, 1803.

" The corregious disease continues at Malaga, where the government has cut off all communication with the part and barbor, as it committed great ravaces there -one half of the inhabitants of the city fled, yet by last account 70 to 80 are carried oil daily-our government admits no vessels to anchor in this bay, from the cosac of Spain hetween Cadiz and Alicant."

COURT-MARTIAL.

COLONEL BUTLER.

The order for the disobedience of which col. Butler has been arrested, was to the best of our recollection, issued in the spring of 1801, at Fort Adams, by gen. Wilkinson, in nearly the following words:

"GENERAL ORDERS. For the health, convenience and accommodation of the troops, the hair is to be CROPPED without exception of persons, and the General will give the example."

This order was transmitted to the different military posts through the accustomed channels; and we believe was generally received with horror and disgust. At one post particularly (Fort Mifflin) we feel no hesitation in asseuting this to be the case universally. The officers obeyed the imperious and arbitrary mandate, but they obeyed with chagrin and silent indignation; and it required every possible exertion to suppress the spirit of discontent, amounting almost to mutiny, which appeared among the garrison on that occasion; one and menacing language respecting their just pre soldier particularly, who had always been Cotton Rags, remarked for the martial neatness of his dress, arms, &c. addressed his commanding officer, and observed, " that he had faithfully served his country many veat; (17 or 18;) that the period of his present engagement would expire in a short time and entreated he might not be discharg d from an honorable service with that humiliating appearance which formerly designated the convicts at the wheel carrow in Pennsylvania."

From LUTHER MARTIN, Efq. Attorney-General of the State of Maryland.

I comply with your request in stating my opinion of Hamilton's Elizir. It has been used in my family for two or three years past, with uniform success, whenever medicine necessary. I have myself found it an excellent and agreeable remedy for a very painful and troublesome affection of the breast, accompanied with soreness and with obstructed and difficult breathing.

On these accounts I do not hefitate to recommend Hamilton's Elixir, as a valuable medicine, and deferving public artention.

LUTHER MARTIN. Mr. Abijah Henly, Bridge-Street, Balcimore, was cured by one hottle of Hamilton's elixir of a very complicated diforder, occasioned by a fevere cold caught feveral months ago. He breathed with the greatest difficulty, and was often thrown into weakening fweats when he artempted to walk any distance, and his voice would freuently fail in such a degree that he could only attempt to whisper he has been upwards of six weeks without a return of his complaints, and desires to give this public to simony in favour of this invaluable medi-

Cases of Cures - by Hamilton's Worm Deftroying Loxenges.

(Selected from thousands) the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application. TAPE WORM.

Mr. SAMUEL FULLER, Inn-keeper, on the Harford road, ten miles from Baltimore, began about 20 months ago to be grievoully afficked with a tape worm, which increased fast in fize and strength, so as to excite the most horrid sensations by its writhing motions and intolerable pains, resembling the gnawing and tearing of his bowels, which deprived him of his necessary sleep, and caused such dreadful apprehensions as cannot be conceived but by one in a similar situation—his appetite wasted rapidly, and with that his strength, so that he was unable to attend to any bufiness-when he heard of fome excellent cures performed by Hamilton's worm lozenges, he took a large dofe, which brought away about FOUR YARDS of the worm (now in the poffession of Lee & Co.)—but a renewal of his pains toon convinced him that this monstrous reptile had recovered its first vigour-Application was made to see & Co. for more of their medicine, with their advice-from which refulted the total expulsion of his formidable enemy, in feveral pieces, which he supposed to be IX or EIGHT YARDs more. A few mouth have since elapsed, and Mr. Fuller is now in perfect health. The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his neighbours, and himself will gratify any who may wish to make turther inquiries on the subject. Although Hamilton's worm lozenges produce such powerful effects, when necessary, yet they are perfect y innocent and mild in their operaon on the human body, even taken in large doles, as Mr. Fuller will teftify-their particular milduels is abundantly evident in innumerable cures of infants.

Communicated by Dr. John Spangler, York town, Pennsylvania.

Letter from the reverend Mr JOHN MOLTHER, minister of the Moravian church, in York town. York, January 4th, 1802.

Dear Sir, Dr. riamilton's lozenges have been recommended to ne as a very adequate means for the cure of children afflicted with worms, I procured a box for the use of my family, to try, whether by means of this medicine, I might be enabled to gain a point which, to accomp ish. different other means had proved abor-ive. My eidelt boy had a very fick y appearance was very refflefs at night grew leaner from time to time; in thort, he feemed to be in a precarious state of health, which would yield to none of the medicines administered, until I gave him two dofes of lozenges agreeably to the directions, which carried off a tubstance to all appearance a mer nucus but upon close inspection quit repeled with very small living animals. Not one of that fort of worms which usually affict children came from him. Since that period he grew remarkably better in health, and though lean, has got a fresh and lively complexion. Upon different occasions I have used this medicine as a purging twostitute, and found it to answer exceedingly well, without bringing on belly-ache, or any of those disagreeable sensations, so often occasioned by purging medicines. Upon the which I judge this medicine to be, belides its main object, one of the most fautery means for restoring lost appetite, and promoting a proper state of digestion, by carrying off that bilious substance, which engenders so much indisposition both among children and adults. I am, Sir, your most obedient fervant,

JOHN MOLTHER.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to procure a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often attended with fatal consequences—a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual contiveness—fickness at the stomach, and fevere head ache-and ought to be taken by all perions on a change of climate.

Sold likewise by S. Pleasants, Rickmond; Ross and Douglass, Petersburg ; T. Green, Frederick/burgh ; G. Purdie, Smithfield; M. Jones, Suffolk; Dr. Miller, Winchester; R. Greenhow. William burg; and 7. Shaw, Leefburg.

January 24. Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the fubiciber about 5 or 6 weeks ago, a negro wench named RACHEL. She is a fmall woman, about five feet in height, and 33 years old ; rather of a thin mike-Her colour is very black, and her note not fo flat as is usual in negroes. She has rather a shrill voice ard is pere; fhe is a field negro, and went off with a cotton drefs, but may change her cloaths -Her father is a black wan named Tom, who recovered his freedom a year or two ago, of Mr. N. Crawford of Maryland, and I am told now lives in Alexandria, Washington or George-Town-He is an African opwards of 60 years old, and has gashes on his checks; it is probable the wench may be harboured by him, or by a half fifter of hers called Winney, belonging to Mrs. Brown near Alexandria. The above reward will be given if taken up any where out of the flate, and fecured fo that I get her again, or Twenty Dollars if taken within the stare, and not more than 30 miles from home, and for every mile over that distance what the law allows if delivered to

ELEGANT EDITION The HOLY BIBLE.

PROPOSALS For Printing by Subfeription, (in four handles octavo volumes)

THE HOLY BIBLE, C NTAINING The Old and New Testaments.

CONDITIONS.

It shall be printed on a superfine wove pupe with an elegant new type.

The price to subscribers will be Two Doll. per vol. in boards, or Two Dollars and Fin Cents, handlomely bound and lettered.

To those who subscribe for several copies, ad count will be made, proportioned to the min ber subscribed for.

THE advantage of having this invaluable Book prized on a large type, and, at the time time, in portable at convenient volumes, appears fo evident, that the ence ragement necessary to warrant an undertaking of fin magnitude, is confidently expected; a portable volo would often be taken up, in a moment of leifure, who the fize of a large, unwieldy folio, would operate an apology for leaving it unopened, in this way, fmall potions of time would be profitably employed, which might other life be totally loft. In large families a Bibles volumes, affording an apportunity for feveral to redu once, may formerim s be peculiarly convenient: it feen Superfluous to add much on this in ject -- fuffice it to fat that no reasonable expense or plans shall be found a render this edition of the Holy scriptures both come

The ab we work is in prefs, and will be finished about the end of the prefeut year.
